

Nā mea koena! Bonus finds!

| Ki'i | Inoa & cool fact | Helu | Latitu | Lonikū |
|---|--|------|--------|--------|
|  | Limu Pepeiao Also called: Lipepeiao Kulapepeiao | | | |
| Observation: | | | | |
|  | Loli Are filter feeders and sift through sand for organic matter | | | |
| Observation: | | | | |
|  | Hawa'e Found in tidepools and up to 50ft in depth. | | | |
| Observation: | | | | |
|  | 'Ina Often mistaken for wana but has no poison. | | | |
| Observation: | | | | |
|  | 'Ako'ako'a A common name for all corals. | | | |
| Observation: | | | | |
|  | 'Alamihi Quick to run and hide if they see humans. | | | |
| Observation: | | | | |
|  | Kūpe'e You may not be able to find a live specimen but a shell may be lying around | | | |
| Observation: | | | | |

| Make a match! |
|--|
| 3 varieties recognized by Hawaiians. Kea / 'Ula / Uli |
| Born of Kumulipo and Po'ele in a Genealogy of Hawaii. |
| Belong to the same family as starfish and sea urchins |
| Ku ma ka po! Pe'e ma ka la! Comes out at night! Hides during the day! |
| Commonly found in the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands |
| Denotes a useless person. |
| Found under rocks usually in areas with brackish water. |